Dear Sir

I forward you papers for Passport for Nelson Morris. He is a Citizen of the United States; and has his Naturalization Certificate together with a Passport he received from your Department in the Summer of 1865, in the great fire at Chicago in 1871. He wants to go again and the only way is to refer to your books for his former Passport, as the Records of his Naturalization were burned with the other Records in the County House in this City. Enclosed find the Fees U. S. and the affidavits as to his former Passport which he thinks he got in June or July 1865, although he might be mistaken about the month. I know Mr Morris to be an old Citizen here heavily engaged in the Stock business. & Cattle Raising

Please direct the Passport to Nelson Morris
Gilsey House
New York City

as he leaves there on the 14th for Europe P A Hoyne
